HOW YOU CAN HELP US

"When I first started volunteering here I didn't know how much I was going to love it. The CMC helps everybody and has a lot of resources people can use. This is just a great place."

- LaWanda

By Donating Time

The CMC's programs and services depend on volunteers just like you! With so many programs and services to choose from, the CMC strives to match everyone who wants to help to a volunteer opportunity that matches their skills, interests, and abilities.

To volunteer, send an e-mail to laura@cmcmadison.org or call 608-441-1180.

By Donating Items

Groups or individuals are always welcome to collect and donate non-perishable food items to the CMC food pantry and meal program. Standard-size personal essential items such as shampoo and soap are also much appreciated.

By Donating Money

Your financial support truly makes a difference to the people seeking assistance at the CMC. The Center depends primarily on donations to fund basic operations. Donations are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. You can donate by mailing a check or online at: <https://cmcmadison.org/how-to-help/donate/>

WHO WE ARE

The Catholic Multicultural Center is dedicated to helping our brothers and sisters in need by serving the whole person. We accomplish this mission by providing direct services to the public to meet basic needs, provide educational opportunities, and foster spiritual growth.
